

KJT Legal/Ebrief Solutions

Employment law can be a confusing field, with various rights and responsibilities flowing from the employment contract as well as those inferred by statute. Coupled with the complexities and expense involved in on-going legal action, employment disputes can prove trying for even the most resilient organisation or determined employee.

At Ebrief Solutions, we aim to demystify the law through providing direct, accessible legal advice at a time and location to suit. Based in the English jurisdiction, Ebrief have the experience and legal savvy necessary to cater for both employers and employees in dynamic industry. Offering a professional consultancy service via email, our clients can correspond directly with legally qualified consultants in order to best understand their legal position, and receive expert advice on how to conduct proceedings. Charging a fixed fee and with friendly staff, Ebrief solutions may provide the resolution to your employment dilemma.